Adivinanza:

Adivina adivinador,
después de una mano,
a un nuevo principio:
el seis, que es ancho y tabla.

Musa que dirige y habla...

... allá en donde la brecha se divide
en doce dorados escalones
y siete más volando hacia el abismo, retumbará todo en las cavernas
si ocho magos pelean en magia
y otros dos sostienen el juego;

mientras hago alusión a la encrucijada de Lorca,
digo y canto:

llora, guitarra, llora!

Notas de composición

El presente trabajo es una compilación cronológica de mis obras para guitarra solista, escritos a lo largo de nueve primeros años de estudio.

Mis primeras lecciones de guitarra corrieron a cargo de Gilberto Soto, magnífico guitarrista y brillante maestro y educador, quien desde mi formación en el Laredo Community College, en Texas, me inspiró a componer pequeñas piezas para la guitarra.

Tres años más adelante, continué con mis estudios en la ‘Trinity University’ de San Antonio, Texas. Esta vez a cargo de David Underwood, maestro de carácter magistral y entusiasmo por la composición de nuevas piezas para la guitarra. La didáctica en estos dos grandes amigos y maestros sigue siendo fuente de inspiración en el oficio de la composición para guitarra. Es así que, desde mis primeros avances, poco a poco y de manera sencilla y cronológica, veinte años después, queda este nuevo registro alegórico de pequeños cuentos e inquietudes sobre el estudio y manejo de éste magnífico instrumento.

Es posible que algunas de estas piezas no tengan el suficiente valor para ser consideradas como grandes obras, pero creo que pueden ser de gran utilidad en el desarrollo de algún estudiante iniciado en la guitarra. Para los más avanzados, la ingenuidad inquietará al cuidado de las voces.

Datos cronológicos:

La primera edición de 1999 contenía la pieza, para dos guitarras: ‘El lector acostumbrado a siglos de pereza’, misma que se adjuntó a su respectivo volumen: ‘Obra de cámara para la guitarra’; en su lugar, adjunto, con el propósito de presentar solamente obras para guitarra solista, las obras: ‘Un pequeño danzón’, ‘Una partida de ajedrez’, ‘Un juguete para ti’ y ‘La cajita musical’. El orden en el índice varía, esta vez, para establecer un orden temático, sin embargo, el orden cronológico es fiel en ambas ediciones. La presente edición ha sido editada en el año de 2010, con la noble y valiosa asistencia de mi amigo y estudiante, Yohualli Rosas, brillante guitarrista de altos derroteros, con quien quedo muy agradecido, pues impulsó el rescate de varios bocetos que conforman ahora esta compilación. Quedo muy agradecido con mi familia por haberme dado la oportunidad de estudiar música y también quedo agradecido con mis grandes maestros por haberme dado la oportunidad de sumergirme en el estudio y entendimiento de la interpretación y composición para esta compañera inseparable que es la guitarra. Y a ti, querido lector, espero disfrutes de este volumen tanto como lo he disfrutado yo. Tu amigo, el autor.

Notes on composition

The present work is a compilation of my solo guitar music compositions written for such elegant instrument, from 1990 until 1999.

My first guitar lessons began in 1991 with the maestro Gilberto D. Soto, who greatly encouraged me to compose small pieces for the guitar; eventually, this task would be crafted in such a way that I could see my own development at the guitar. These pieces brought me closer to the art and craft of music composition and proved to be a great understanding on how guitar music works.

Later, I kept to be inspired by another great teacher: David Underwood. Every class was a grand master class and what I liked the most was that he also encouraged me to create new works for the guitar. I will never forget those classes in which he would rest on his chair with his eyes closed and saying: 'play for me your compositions'; I felt honored and also glad because my teacher's ear was pleased with the sound of my creations.

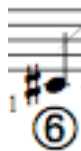

Some of these pieces might not be considered master works, but with no doubt, each of them has taught me a particular lesson and have proved to be valuable steps on my development as a guitarist. Therefore, I consider that any of these pieces could be friendly enough for the dedicated student and for many a guitar player.

The 1999 first edition of this work contained a piece called 'El lector acostumbrado a siglos de pereza', which became attached to the volume: 'Obra de cámara para la guitarra'. Furthermore, the following works: 'Un pequeño danzón', 'Una partida de ajedrez', 'Un juguete para ti' & 'La cajita musical' were included accordingly. Also, the index of this new 2010 edition varies for the purpose of thematic order; however, the yearly chronologic order remains unaltered.

This present edition has been edited in the year of 2010 with the noble and invaluable assistance of my friend, student and brilliant guitarist, Yohualli Rosas to whom I am deeply grateful for we unearthed many good drafts of early works which give more substance to this present edition. I remain wholeheartedly thankful to my family for supporting my career and to my great teachers who gave me the opportunity to make this work possible and for making me fall in love with such beautiful instrument. And to you, my kind reader, I hope that you enjoy this present volume as much as I have. Your friend, the author.

Notas de interpretación / Notes on interpretation.

Símbolos utilizados -The following symbols are used and explained.

Los números arábigos pequeños indican los dedos de la mano.

-Arabic numbers assign the fingers of the fret-hand.

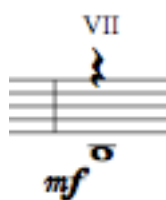

Los números en-circulados asignan la cuerda en la cual se toca la nota.

-Circled numbers assign the string in which the note is to be played.

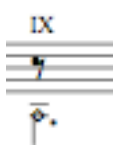

Los números romanos entre paréntesis indican el traste que, usado como punto de posición, se coloca el dedo índice; independientemente de iniciar con otro u otros dedos.

-Roman numerals in parentheses indicate the fret at which the first finger references the position, thus the notes of the motive or phrase which may or may not start with the first finger.

Los números romanos sin paréntesis indican que debe usarse la barra entera. También indica la posición del ataque en cualquier armónico.

-Roman numerals without parentheses imply both: The place at which the full bar is required and the place at which a harmonic is struck.

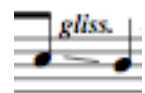

Aquellos números romanos precedidos de un símbolo de mitad indican el requerimiento de una media barra.

-Roman numerals with a half sign imply that a half bar is required.

El signo L.V. significa: dejar vibrar, laissez vibrer, Lasciar vibrar, let vibrate.

-The L.V. sign signifies to let vibrate.

El signo de gliss. acompañado de una línea indica que se debe deslizar el dedo hasta la segunda nota sin herir ésta en su la cuerda correspondiente.

-The 'gliss' sign implies that the note reaches without attack.

La línea deslizada entre dos notas implica un glissando hiriendo ambas notas.

-Any line connecting two notes imply a glissando with both notes struck.

P, i, m, a, c

Cada letra es la primera en cada nombre de los dedos de la mano que hiere.

[P] Pulgar, [i] índice, [m] medio, [a] anular y [c] 'chiquito' para el meñique.

-Each letter stands for the first letter in the attacking finger names.
